ARCO and IFEMA are pleased to announce the third edition of ARCOLisboa which will open for collectors and professionals on 16 May and to the general public between 17 and 20 May 2018.

The A Cordoaria National Museum will once again be hosting an event centered on the quality of the pieces, the communication between all of the participating agents, the Portuguese institutions and the artistic context of the city of Lisbon.

ARCOLisboa 2018 will have a new timetable to adjust to the local scene dynamics . Please take note of the new schedule:

16May – 5pm. to 9.30pm.– Opening

17 to 19 May– 2pm .to 9pm.

20 May – noon to 6pm.

ARCOLisboa will keep its reduced size and a very strong focus in the quality of the works. The precision in the selection of contents is key to achieve this goal and to do that we count with the Organizing Committee's and all of the fair's collaborators who will carefully select the contents of the fair.

We are looking forward to your proposals and remain at your disposal at arcolisboa@ifema.es

6. Specific Participation Rules ARCOLisboa 2018

These SPECIFIC RULES apply to the organisation and the participation of EXHIBITORS (CONTEMPORARY ART GALLERIES) at ARCOLisboa 2018, INTERNATIONAL CONTEMPORARY ART FAIR to be held at A Cordoaria Nacional, Lisboa, from 16th to 20th May, 2018 (henceforth ARCOLisboa 2018). These specific rules are in addition to IFEMA's GENERAL PARTICIPATION RULES which are APPLICABLE TO ALL ITS EVENTS.

1.- ORGANISATION

The conception, realisation, and administration of ARCOLisboa 2018 is the responsibility of IFEMA.

1.1.- ARCOLisboa 2018 Organising Committee:

IFEMA shall appoint the ARCOLisboa 2018 ORGANISING COMMITTEE (henceforth COMMITTEE) and shall take its decisions considering the deliberations of the COMMITTEE, which shall have its own BY-LAWS.

The COMMITTEE shall be assisted by a SPECIAL WORKING GROUP, whose members shall be IFEMA officials, which will examine, among other matters, the administrative documentation to be presented by Applicant GALLERIES.

The COMMITTEE shall evaluate each and every one of the documents prepared by the Special Working Group responsible for examining presented by the applicant CONTEMPORARY ART GALLERIES (henceforth GALLERIES).

The COMMITTEE shall also evaluate the documentation provided by the applicant GALLERIES on the website developed for this purpose containing graphic information on their artists, especially those to be shown at ARCOLisboa 2018, and on the activities of the GALLERY and exhibition programming.

Members of the COMMITTEE shall include:

- a) Representatives of IFEMA as organising body.
The management of ARCOLisboa 2018 shall also represent IFEMA, with a voice but no vote.
- b) Up to a maximum of 5 galleries designated by IFEMA, with the presence of at least 2 galleries from Portugal.

When taking decisions relative to the selection of GALLERIES, the institutional representatives shall not exercise their right to vote, delegating such right to the gallery members on the COMMITTEE.

For the meetings to be considered valid at least 3 members must be present; these must include the representative of IFEMA or persons delegated by him.

ARCOLisboa 2018 MANAGEMENT (henceforth MANAGEMENT), shall be designated by IFEMA and shall, as the latter's delegate, execute the conception, realisation, and administration of ARCOLisboa 2018.

All deliberations, qualifications and classifications shall be confidential, although Applicants shall be informed of their scoring if they request this information.

1.2.- ARCOLisboa 2018 Appeal Committee

After consulting with the Organising Committee, IFEMA shall appoint the ARCOLisboa 2018 Appeal Committee (henceforth Appeal Committee) who shall review the claims, duly made by the applicant GALLERIES who have not obtained the necessary scores to be allotted a booth, during the process of selection developed by the Organising Committee.

The Appeal Committee shall be made up by three independent members of the Organising Committee. The Chairman of the Appeal Committee shall be a legal expert, while the other two members shall have expertise in the international contemporary art market. The three members shall hold these posts for up to four editions of ARCOLisboa. These experts shall not have served as members of the Organising Committee nor have exhibited at ARCOMadrid or ARCOLisboa in the two editions prior to their appointment.

2.- ACCEPTANCE OF RULES

An Applicant ART GALLERY, through its authorised representative(s), assumes the obligation on its own behalf and that of its employees to abide by these SPECIFIC PARTICIPATION RULES and IFEMA'S GENERAL PARTICIPATION RULES.

The presentation of an Application for Participation necessarily implies, on the part of the Applicant, the complete and unconditional acceptance of the present Specific Participation Rules for ARCOLisboa 2018, as well as the General Participation Rules for all IFEMA events, of which the Applicant is aware, and which the Applicant accepts and is bound to abide by.

3.- CONDITIONING FACTORS FOR SPACE LIMITATION

IFEMA, following proposal by the MANAGEMENT, shall decide the maximum total of available exhibition space for exhibiting GALLERIES.

4.- GOALS

ARCOLisboa 2018's mandate is to promote and sell unique and multiple 20th and 21st century avant-garde and contemporary artworks, with a special focus on the latest forms of visual expression. Moreover, in its specific capacity as an INTERNATIONAL FAIR, it shall specially emphasise the participation of those GALLERIES that have been most noteworthy in their activities and with the greatest international impact.

Consequently, ARCOLisboa 2018 aims to:

- a) To create a visible platform, stable and international for the Portuguese art market.
- b) Present and promote the activities of international GALLERIES which offer an overall vision representative of 20th and 21st century artistic creation.
- c) Faithfully reflect the latest developments in the international visual arts.
- d) Offer guarantees of professionalism, through the quality of the exhibition, relationships with collectors, and ties to museums and other art entities.
- e) Promote the diffusion and collection of contemporary art.
- f) Provide related information through its publications and websites.

5.- CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION

Applications to participate in ARCOLisboa 2018 shall only be accepted from GALLERIES that present, exclusively, 20th and 21st century artworks.

5.1.- Applicants to General Programme should provide a statement, on their own responsibility, declaring that they have engaged in continuous, permanent activity as a GALLERY, in accordance with the following criteria:

- A minimum of two years open uninterruptedly.
- Opening dates and hours coinciding with those generally established for such venues.
- Minimum of four different exhibitions per year, open to the general public with free admission during the usual opening hours.
- Being registered and up to date, at the time of presenting its APPLICATION FORM, with its trading license and/or taxes for its commercial and professional activities, or holding a document exempting the GALLERY from such payment.

Non-compliance with these conditions shall be cause for refusing participation at ARCOLisboa 2018 and such Applications will not be considered.

5.2.- The Applicant GALLERY should also duly fill in the EVALUATION SHEET, accessible from the website developed for this purpose. Filling the evaluation sheet must be duly executed, if not, this can be a reason of not acceptance in ARCOLisboa 2018.

EVALUATION AND SCORING CRITERIA

The Committee shall evaluate the applications received in strict accordance with the goals established in the SPECIFIC PARTICIPATION RULES and in the BY-LAWS of the ARCOLisboa 2018 ORGANISING COMMITTEE, besides the following Evaluation and Scoring Criteria:

I	ARCOLisboa 2018 PROJECT	35 points
II	GALLERY PROGRAMME	35 points
III	ARTISTS INCLUDED IN EXHIBITIONS AT MUSEUMS AND INSTITUTIONS	20 points
IV	PARTICIPATION AT INTERNATIONAL FAIRS (including ARCOLisboa)	5 points
V	INCLUSION IN GALLERY LISTINGS, PLANS, WEBPAGES, PUBLICATION OF CATALOGUES, APPEARANCES IN ART MEDIA	5 points

All these criteria shall be evaluated, with a maximum of 100 points by each member of the committee.

5.3.- The application form should be accompanied by proof of payment, to the account designated by IFEMA, of application fees of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY EUROS (+10% VAT for Spanish galleries except those resident in Ceuta, Melilla or the Canary Islands) to finance the costs of processing and selecting the application forms.

This fee will be compensated, only in the case that the Gallery applicant, be finally accepted in ARCOLisboa 2018, deducting this fee from the total amount of the ARCOLisboa exhibitor's services (1.200 € + 10 % VAT for Spanish galleries except those resident in Ceuta, Melilla or the Canary Islands)

5.4.-All documentation and proof of compliance presented by the GALLERIES shall be in Spanish, in English or in Portuguese.

5.5.- APPLICATION FORMS should be sent, in writing, to ARCOLisboa 2018 before 9th January 2018.

Once the APPLICATION FORM is accepted, under the conditions detailed in rule 5, IFEMA, through MANAGEMENT, shall inform the APPLICANT in writing of the decision made regarding its admission or refusal, in keeping with the conditions set out in rules 5 and 6 of these SPECIFIC PARTICIPATION RULES.

6.- SELECTION AND PARTICIPATION

6.1.-The PARTICIPATION of Applicant GALLERIES shall be decided by IFEMA, following the proposals of the COMMITTEE.

These decisions shall be based on the Conditions described in these SPECIFIC RULES, and in the points assigned to each applicant in accordance with the Criteria for Evaluation based on the information received from the applicant GALLERIES.

6.2.- All applicant GALLERIES shall be evaluated on a scale of 100 points.

6.3.- Having demonstrated the necessary quality requirements, GALLERIES will be invited to participate in ARCOLisboa 2018 in strict order of scoring and provided that there is available space.

The COMMITTEE may, strictly following the order of scores, fill any vacancies left by the GALLERIES originally selected, and include those galleries who, although having demonstrated the necessary quality requirements, were not assigned a booth due to restrictions of available space (WAITING LIST).

The WAITING LIST will be filled by those applicants that the Appeal Committee, in application of rule 6.8, considers eligible to participate, and having satisfied the necessary scores in the criteria of quality required. (FINAL WAITING LIST)

Once the FINAL WAITING LIST has been completed, the COMMITTEE shall proceed to fill all the vacancies as previously described.

With the purpose of enhancing the prestige of the fair, the ORGANISING COMMITTEE reserves the right to invite, without being subject to the selection process, a limited number of foreign GALLERIES who, given their proven international reputation, can help to attract top quality visitors and collectors to ARCOLisboa.

6.4.- The MANAGEMENT shall notify the applicant GALLERY that it has been accepted as an EXHIBITOR, so that it may – in the due date specified in the Application Form - make the necessary payments. Failure to comply with this requirement will lead to removal from the list of EXHIBITORS, and the MANAGEMENT may assign its position to the next gallery or publisher on the waiting list.

The EXHIBITING GALLERY (henceforth EXHIBITOR), through its authorised representative(s), assumes the obligation on its own behalf and that of its employees to abide by the SPECIFIC and GENERAL PARTICIPATION RULES, as well as the conditions expressed in the APPLICATION FORM relating to inscription fees, payment schedule, dates for assembly and preparing booths, insurance, and other matters.

6.5.- The Exhibitor's decision not to participate in the Fair is provided for in IFEMA's General Regulations for Participation, article 7 of the General Conditions for Admission and Contracting, and is reason for the dissolution of the contractual relationship between IFEMA and the Exhibitor, under the terms and conditions specified in that article.

6.6.- MANAGEMENT shall inform all other GALLERIES whether they have been included on the waiting list, or whether it has been considered that they have not accredited, with the scoring obtained, the sufficient quality to partake at the fair.

6.7.- MANAGEMENT shall inform any GALLERY about its score if requested.

6.8.- Those Galleries who have not obtained the necessary score to be allocated a booth, during the process of selection carried out by the ORGANISING COMMITTEE, may appeal this decision before the Appeal Committee according to Article 1.2 under these Rules.

To this end, the GALLERY must inform MANAGEMENT of its intention to appeal within a period of two working days following the notification of the decision on its acceptance or not in the fair. In this event, in a period of two working days it will be informed of the scoring obtained, broken down by the CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION AND SCORING.

Said appeal shall be sent by registered post with acknowledgement of receipt to IFEMA, to the attention of ARCOLisboa 2018 Management, within five working days after notification of the scoring obtained. The Management shall inform the Appeal Committee of said decision, who shall settle said appeal before February 13th 2018.

All claims made by Galleries shall be reviewed by the Appeal Committee, to review the transparency of the selection process.

The Director of the Fair shall attend the meetings convened by the Appeal Committee, as an observer but without vote.

The decisions made by the Appeal Committee shall be notified in writing, and these decisions will be final.

IFEMA declines all responsibility for costs incurred by the applicant GALLERIES, nor will it pay any compensation for any damages in relation to its application to participate at ARCOLisboa 2018 nor apply deductions in the inscription fees since the decision of applying to ARCOLisboa 2018 it is completely responsibility of the GALLERIES and external to IFEMA, being agree with this point, the GALLERIES applicants.

7.- EXHIBITOR OBLIGATIONS

The EXHIBITOR must present a project detailing the artworks to be presented at ARCOLisboa 2018, i.e. each one of the works should be accompanied by a brief description, including its origin: artist's name, title, date, technique, edition number, medium, measurements, and any other data facilitating the artwork's identification. If there are any further changes, it must be notified in writing to the fair.

8.- ARTWORKS ON SHOW

EXHIBITORS shall only present original 20th and 21st century avant-garde artworks, including:

- a) Oil paintings, watercolours, pastels, drawings, collages.
- b) Graphic and original multiples.
- c) Original sculptures (posthumous copies made from original moulds should be labelled as such) installations and ephemeral work.
- d) Photography, video, digital and electronic art

The following are prohibited:

- a) Forged artworks, or pieces of illicit origin
- b) Highly restored, damaged, or altered pieces

9. - EXCLUSION

The following shall be motives for exclusion of an EXHIBITOR from ARCOLisboa 2018, before or during the Fair, and, when appropriate, for closure of its booth:

- a) Closure of the GALLERY.
- b) Lack of compliance with the SPECIFIC or GENERAL PARTICIPATION RULES, as well as the non-observance of the conditions expressed in the CONTRACT FORM:
 - b.1) Failure to pay any amount owing to IFEMA for participation in ARCOLisboa 2018.
 - b.2) Non-compliance with the booth's public opening hours, or manifest irregularity in opening hours.
 - b.3) Non-compliance with warnings received in writing regarding the booth's presentation and maintenance.
 - b.4) Subletting part (or all) of the booth to one or more other GALLERIES.
 - b.5) Consideration that the artwork on show or the decoration and presentation of the booth do not meet ARCOLisboa 2018's standards.
- c) Sale of forged artworks or artworks of dubious identity.

10. - ASSIGNATION OF BOOTHS

The MANAGEMENT shall assign a booth to each EXHIBITOR, once the latter has fulfilled each and every one of the prerequisites.

These assignments shall be based, primarily, on:

- a) The position in the classification list and in collaboration with the Management of the Fair.
- b) Division into subgroups according to particular characteristics and the overall layout of ARCOLisboa 2018.

Once the booths are assigned, MANAGEMENT shall draw up a plan of the halls showing the location of each EXHIBITOR's individual booth.

MANAGEMENT reserves the right to modify the conditions of each booth, within reasonable criteria, modifying the locations, dimensions or shape as requested, when the concept, configuration, or distribution of the overall exhibition space so require.

Each EXHIBITOR shall be informed of its booth assignment with a copy of the map of the entire Fair, indicating its exact location.

11.- INSPECTION OF THE ARTWORK ON DISPLAY

The MANAGEMENT, advised by the COMMITTEE, shall inspect the booths, both during setting-up and throughout the duration of ARCOLisboa 2018, in order to supervise and control compliance with the present rules, as well as to verify that the design and presentation of the booth is in accordance with the objective criteria and spatial conception of ARCOLisboa 2018.

In the event of the existence of objections to any of the artworks on display or to be displayed, the EXHIBITOR shall be compelled to resolve the situation that may have motivated such objections, removing the piece or substituting another, admissible one. If not, the booth shall be closed, and the EXHIBITOR shall have no right to any form of compensation.

The supervision and control of these aspects may justify the exclusion of an EXHIBITOR from the next edition of ARCOLisboa, according to Sections 5 (Conditions) and 6 (Selection and Participation) of the present RULES.

12.- CATALOGUE

ARCOLisboa 2018 will publish a guide of the Fair, in which each EXHIBITOR must appear, under the conditions detailed in the CONTRACT FORM for each programme.

The EXHIBITOR shall contribute to the quality of this and other publications either printed, online or downloadable, by providing the graphic and written material necessary to guarantee its quality and accuracy. The EXHIBITOR shall comply strictly with the deadlines for delivering this material.

13.- PRESS OFFICE.

The mission of the Press Office is to present information regarding the artists and GALLERIES to daily newspapers and the specialised art press.

EXHIBITORS should therefore provide the wide-ranging, accurate information, as well as high-quality graphic material, which may be requested of them.

14.- PARTICIPATION OF OTHER INSTITUTIONS, PUBLICATIONS AND ART AND CULTURE MAGAZINES

Using its own judgement, IFEMA may admit as participants in ARCOLisboa 2018 those INSTITUTIONS that are known for their commitment to promoting and collecting contemporary art, as well as a selection of ART and CULTURE MAGAZINES.
