ARCOLisboa 2018 Forum

Recognised professionals of the international art scene are involved in ARCOLisboa

The talks, free and open to the public, will revolve around collecting and creative news

Talking about art and collectibles will be one of the main discursive exercises at this edition of ARCOLisboa in a series of presentations, with free and open access, which will bring together leading practitioners. The participation of galleries and artists in the Fair attracts the directors of museums and institutions, curators, collectors and other international prescribers of the art world from more than 20 countries to the capital of Portugal. In this way, ARCOLisboa returns to establish itself as a space for the exchange of ideas and projects with the development of an interesting programme of conferences and talks.

The Torreão Nascente de la Cordoaria will host the Collectors' Forum, which, with the help of the critic Isabel Carlos and with the support of Fundação Millenium bcp will set out to give visitors a deeper understanding of the motives and ways in which major collectors approach their labour of love. A few sessions will include the participation of collectors, such as, Jean-Conrad & Isabelle Lemaitre, Harald Orneberg, Inge de Bruin, Paulo Pimenta, Luiz Augusto Teixeira de Freitas and Armando Cabral.

In addition, the Museum Forum will discuss the similarities and differences between Portuguese and international museum programmes. Present at the talks will be Rita Lougares -Museu Coleção Berardo-, Adina Kamien- Kazhdan -The Israel Museum-, Jorge Catarino -Museu Coleção Berardo-, Victor Pires Vieira -artista-, João Ribas -Museu de Arte Contemporânea de Serralves-, Kate Fowle -Garage Museum of Contemporary Art & Independent Curators International-, Luis Silva e João Moura -Kunsthalle Lissabon-, Fernanda Brenner -Pivô Arte e Pesquisa-, Alex Klein -ICA University of Pennsylvania-, and Samuel Leuenberger -SALTS-.
