GENERAL REGULATIONS REGARDING ADJUDICATION

1. All participating companies must have paid the registration quota (20%) and must have sent in their Participation Request Form before Wednesday 5th October 2011.
2. Groups of companies with different trade names shall not be accepted, except when they are able to provide proof of the fact that they belong to the same business group.
3. Companies that are unable to attend the corresponding adjudication day may delegate the choice of their space in writing to either the Fair Management or to . In cases where the choice of space has not been expressly delegated, those companies that are members of  shall be considered to have implicitly delegated the choice to said Federation, whilst those companies that do not form part of  shall be considered to have delegated their choice to the Fair Management.
4. The exhibition space adjudicated in the draw may differ from the space initially requested, but it shall never entail a reduction of more than 10% regarding the number of square metres initially requested. Those companies that, for whatever reason, decide to opt for a stand of smaller size during the course of the draw, shall occupy last place in the list of companies for the group that corresponds to the stand size in question. Similarly, exhibition space increases shall be determined by the Fair Management in accordance with availability.
5. Under no circumstances may companies alter the shape and size of the islands that feature on the plan for the halls, as created by the Fair Management.
6. The number of editions attended by companies at the fair shall be decisive in cases in which requests are made by two or more companies for the same number of square metres.
7. Companies that send in the Participation Request Form and the corresponding payment after Friday 21st October, shall be adjudicated a space from any exhibition space that remains following the 3 draws, depending on availability.
8. The Fair Management shall endeavour to maintain the stands for the following edition, provided that the development of the fair so permits.
